PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Founded in 2010, the Sousa Mendes Foundation is dedicated to perpetuating the memory of the Holocaust rescuer Aristides de Sousa Mendes and to educating the public about his heroic action. We are very proud that The New York Times singled out the Aristides de Sousa Mendes Museum, our partner in Portugal, in its list of 52 places to visit in 2025!

Olivia Mattis

Aristides de Sousa Mendes,
Righteous Among the Nations

The Sousa Mendes Foundation was in residence at the Museum in July of 2025 for our inaugural Educators' Institute in Portugal. Participants included classroom teachers, museum docents, a Foundation director, a high school principal, a guidance counselor and other wonderful educators. The Museum was the perfect home for this program, with its galleries, library (with books donated by our Foundation), auditorium and classroom all at our disposal. Thank you to Museum Director Joana Pais and Mayor Paulo Catalino for welcoming us with open arms!

Very exciting this year is the launch of a lushly illustrated new picture book about Aristides de Sousa Mendes for young readers: The World Entire — A True Story of an Extraordinary World War II Rescue, named by Tablet Magazine as one of the best children's books of the year.

Text by Elizabeth Brown and illustrations by Melissa Castrillón.

Our popular Sunday film-and-discussion programs continue to attract a large audience. These programs feature fascinating true stories of rescue, resistance and hope on a panoply of subjects, with expert and engaging panelists such as filmmakers, authors, and survivors.

Also in 2025 the Sousa Mendes story entered the New York State Holocaust education curriculum, and we introduced a new and related touring exhibition, Call Me Stefan, thanks to the sustained, multi-year efforts of Board member Leah Rozenfeld Sills.

Our lead donor continues to be the Tamara van den Bergh Ferguson Charitable Foundation, named for a Sousa Mendes visa recipient who in 1940 escaped from the Netherlands, through France, Spain and Portugal, then served in the Free French Forces in England, and ultimately found safe haven in the United States.

A big thank you to our many generous donors, our dedicated volunteer Board members, nearly sixty distinguished guest speakers, and my terrific team of Matthew Spirn and Robin Bigga-Piskernig. In Portuguese, obrigada! And in Hebrew, toda raba!

Are you planning a trip to Portugal?

The Aristides de Sousa Mendes Museum, located in Cabanas de Viriato, highlights the story of a hero of humanity and is not to be missed.

The Aristides de Sousa Mendes Museum was listed by The New York Times in its list of 52 places to visit in 2025!

EDUCATORS' INSTITUTE in PORTUGAL

"This was a trip of a lifetime!"

PORTO: The teachers visited historic sites and enjoyed free time.

On July 6-14, 2025 we held our first-ever Educators' Institute in Portugal on rescue and resistance during the Holocaust. The program began and ended in Lisbon, and in between we were in residence at the Aristides de Sousa Mendes Museum in Cabanas de Viriato. There, we occupied the sleek and modern top floor, with its classroom, seminar room and library. The books in the library — on rescue and resistance during the Holocaust and related subjects — had all been acquired and donated by the Sousa Mendes Foundation, so we felt right at home! Our diverse and talented group of teachers took field trips to museums and historic sites in Porto, Belmonte, Vilar Formoso and elsewhere. They conducted original research, made lively presentations and formed lasting friendships.

Leading the Institute were Mariana Abrantes, Cookie Fischer, Dr. Olivia Mattis and Dr. Heidi Omlor. Joining via ZOOM were filmmaker Laura Seltzer-Duny, author Louise Borden, artist Allan Drummond, and historians Dr. Jud Newborn and Dr. Mordecai Paldiel. Local experts — whom we appreciate so much — included Dores Fernandes, Luisa Pacheco Marques, Luis Medeiros, Margarida Ramalho, Josefa Reis and Hugo Vaz.

Many thanks to the Tamara van den Bergh Ferguson Charitable Foundation, which helped keep our prices low.

Its inscription reads: "In memory of the thousands of Jewish victims of intolerance and religious fanaticism assassinated in the massacre begun in this square on April 19, 1506." CURIOUS GEORGE AT THE ARISTIDES DE SOUSA MENDES MUSEUM

The Sousa Mendes Foundation commissioned the exhibition The Journey That Saved Curious George that remains on view at the Museum with original illustrations by Allan Drummond.

ANTI-DEFAMATION COURT CASE

In October of 2025, a lawsuit filed by four grandchildren of Aristides de Sousa Mendes against the far-right Portuguese magazine O Diabo and several of its authors ended in a settlement. At issue were a series of articles written in defamatory language, claiming falsely that in 1940 Aristides de Sousa Mendes had sold visas to people crowded at the border and that these people were not in danger for their lives. In the end, the publication and its authors recanted their false claims, and the descendants therefore dropped their claim for financial damages. "The most important thing was not the money, it was the truth," said Gerald Mendes, one of the plaintiffs in the case.

SEND US YOUR BOOKS!

We continue to collect books for the library of the Aristides de Sousa Mendes Museum, and have sent them over 1000 books so far on such subjects as rescue and resistance during the Holocaust, Portugal and the Jews, Holocaust survivor and refugee memoirs, the US and the Holocaust, and general non-fiction books about World War II. In 2025 we were delighted to receive donated books from historian Anne Nelson, bookseller Ken Schoen and the estate of Holocaust survivor Ernest Fontheim, and we are grateful to them all. If you have relevant books in excellent condition that you wish to donate, please contact us at info@sousamendesfoundation.org.

Robin Bigga-Piskernig

“It is an honor to work at this organization and to help educate and inspire with great stories of Holocaust heroes!”

— Robin Bigga-Piskernig

AUSTRIAN SERVICE ABROAD — A SPECIAL PARTNER

Since 2022, the Sousa Mendes Foundation has partnered with the Austrian Service Abroad program based in Vienna. This program is an opportunity for Austrian young people, newly graduated from high school, to work in Holocaust education in place of their military service. The interns work as part of our team for a 10-month period, 34 hours/week, at no cost to the Foundation, and they return to Austria with a wealth of new life experiences and knowledge of history. Our wonderful interns in 2025 were Emile Haffner (2024-25) and Robin Bigga-Piskernig (2025-26) in New York and Camillo Liebl (2024-25) in Portugal.

EDUCATIONAL OUTREACH

On May 8, 2025, Dr. Olivia Mattis spoke to museum docents and educators at the Holocaust Memorial and Tolerance Center in Glen Cove, NY about Aristides de Sousa Mendes and the work of our Foundation. During the Q&A, docent Mireille Taub explained that her own family escaped from Nazi-occupied Europe via Portugal in 1940, and she wondered if Sousa Mendes may have saved her life. A little research confirmed that indeed, her family received Portuguese visas in Toulouse, France in July of 1940 under the authority of Sousa Mendes. She then immediately signed up for our educators' trip — a journey that would prove life-altering. On June 17, Mattis spoke on the same topic to the 3GNY group of descendants of Holocaust survivors. Throughout the year, Cookie Fischer spoke to school groups in Portugal and led tours at the Aristides de Sousa Mendes Museum and the Chabad House in Cascais.

NEW YORK STATE CURRICULUM

We are proud that the New York State Archives has highlighted our hero, Aristides de Sousa Mendes, in its resources to support teaching about the Holocaust and other genocides. There are robust learning modules available not only on our hero but also on the related subjects of the Righteous Among the Nations and the escape story of Sousa Mendes visa recipient Stefan Rozenfeld, plus a slide deck available for classroom use. This project is the work of the Holocaust & Human Rights Education Center, created in collaboration with Leah Rozenfeld Sills and a team of New York State educators. For more information, go to: <https://tinyurl.com/ASMinNYS>

TOURING EXHIBITION AVAILABLE IN NEW YORK AREA

The new exhibition Call Me Stefan, available to schools and community centers in the New York area, tells the dramatic true story of a Polish Jewish boy rescued by Aristides de Sousa Mendes in 1940. Co-curated by Leah Rozenfeld Sills and Claudia Ninhos, it consists of twelve interlocking panels forming a Star of David design. This project is a collaboration with the Holocaust & Human Rights Education Center in White Plains, NY. For more information and to book the exhibition, go to: <https://sousamendesfoundation.org/call-me-stefan/>

IN THE GARDEN OF THE RIGHTEOUS

At New York's 92nd Street Y on March 16, 2025, the Sousa Mendes Foundation co-sponsored a conversation between authors Richard Hurowitz and Daniel Mendelsohn on Hurowitz's book, In the Garden of the Righteous. This book includes ten chapters, each of which tells an inspiring story of Holocaust rescue, with the story of Aristides de Sousa Mendes comprising the first chapter. Hurowitz made extensive use of our Foundation's library and archives as part of his research process.

STORIES OF RESCUE, RESISTANCE AND HOPE

In 2025, we continued our highly popular series of online Sunday programs on optimistic, inspiring true stories of Jewish history, presenting films, books, survivors, experts and heroes. Among our partner organizations for this season's programs were the YIVO Institute for Jewish Research, the Soviet Jewry Movement Archives Project and our series sponsor, the Tamara van den Bergh Ferguson Charitable Foundation.
